WIFS-Atlanta Member Wins 2009 National A.N.G.E.L. Award

The Atlanta chapter of Women in Insurance & Financials Services (WIFS-Atlanta) is pleased to announce that Ms. Holly Conley is the recipient of the WIFS 2009 A.N.G.E.L. award. The A.N.G.E.L. award, which stands for Assistance, Nurture, Guidance, Ethics and Leadership, is presented annually by the National chapter to a single recipient demonstrating attributes that have been instrumental to the success of her peers.

Ms. Conley is the Director of Operations for Insurance Now and is a licensed health and life and property and casualty agent. She is a long-time member of WIFS and has served in a variety of leadership roles at both the local and national levels, including President of the Atlanta chapter and Chair of the National Membership committee. In addition to WIFS, Ms. Conley is also a member of the Georgia Association of Health Underwriters. She is also a supporter of Anna's Angel Fund. She currently resides in Dunwoody, GA with her two children.

Women in Insurance & Financial Services is an organization that seeks to support, encourage and advance the success of women in the financial services industry. WIFS boasts approximately 1,200 members nationwide and has 29 local chapters. For morning information about WIFS, and particularly the Atlanta chapter, please contact the administrative office at 770-483-2950.
